Good Governance For Nonprofits

Tuesday, September 15
Community Room

10:00 AM-1:00 PM Program

This interactive, in person workshop will provide an overview of corporate governance and nonprofit boards, and we will discuss how good corporate housekeeping practices can be a means of supporting and documenting good governance and promoting engaged boards.

Topics will include a general overview of corporate governance, an overview of legal and fiduciary duties, corporate governance documents, and how to implement effective corporate governance, which is one of the responsibilities of an engaged board.

Learning Objectives: Leave with an understanding of how corporate and nonprofit boards can benefit from corporate housekeeping practices in a way that can strengthen an organization to fulfill its mission responsibly, effectively, and with enthusiasm.
